Dear Ms. dermrach,

On behalf of the IAFOR local organizing committee and the ACAS 2016 conference chairs, Professor Baden Offord, Professor Donald E. Hall, Professor Emerita Sue Ballyn and Professor Koichi Iwabuchi, I am pleased to inform you that your proposal, "The Study of the Readiness for Entering the ASEAN Community of Undergraduate Students", has met the accepted international academic standard of blind peer review, and has been accepted for Poster Presentation at ACAS 2016. You are also invited to submit your full paper to the official conference proceedings.

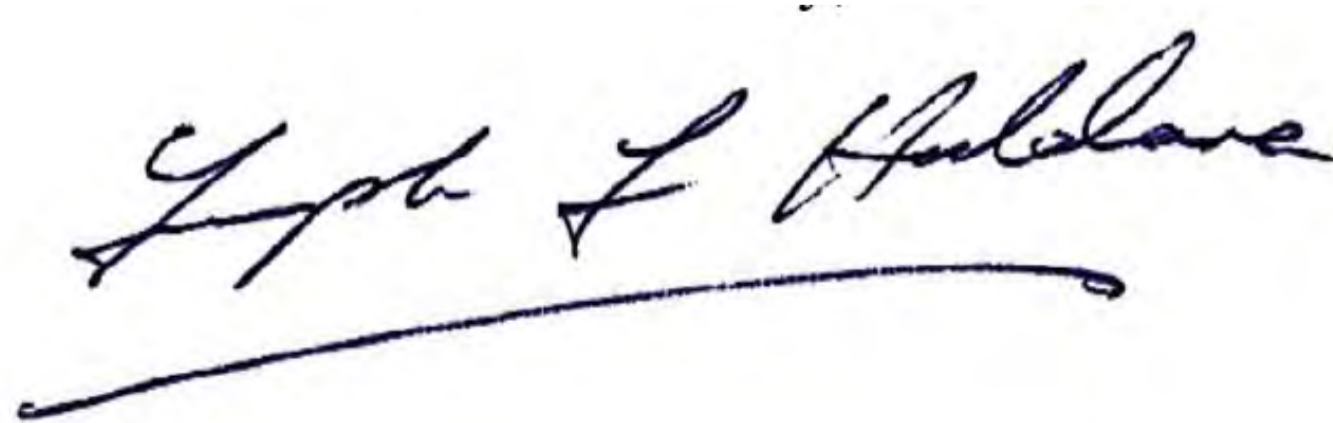

The conference will be held in Kobe, Japan, at Art Center of Kobe from the afternoon of Thursday, June 2nd through Sunday, June 5th, 2016. The keynote and plenary session will be on Friday and parallel panel sessions begin Friday Morning and run for the duration of the conference. For more detailed information about the conference and accommodation, please visit the conference website.

If you cannot present for any reason, please notify the conference administration team at acas@iafor.org. If there is a day that you are unable to present, please contact the administration team at the time of registration. Not everyone can be accommodated with preferential dates and time, so please limit any request of this nature to unavoidable situations.

A PDF of the full Conference Programme will be uploaded on the ACAS 2016 website by Wednesday, May 11th. Please check the programme at that time to make sure all information pertaining to you is included and correct.

Thank you for participating in The Sixth Asian Conference on Asian Studies 2016. All of us affiliated with the organization aim to make this conference a success.

Yours Sincerely,

Joseph Haldane, Ph.D. (London), F.R.A.S.
